

Safety Alert!

Please be aware that a wild animal (red wolf or coyote) has been observed in the corner area of the Health Department/Water Department complex, between the trees and the walking trail (area just past the Water Department heading downtown). Please continue to use our walking trail, but be cautious when you walk in that corner of the trail. For your safety, if you spot the animal, please do not approach it. Thank You!